By Charles W. Welch. Not in the history of the American church has such a communion service been held as the one of yesterday afternoon in the Tabernacle, conducted by the presiding officers of the three general assemblies not meeting in this city. The days preceding and immediately following Appomattox were forgotten and sectional division and denominational lines were wiped away. Hearts which had been hardened during past years by the oft-told stories of the war of the rebellion, in which brethren were arrayed against each other in deadly strife, when the hot breath of passion had blasted the fences of love, forgot their feelings of resentment and worshiped with their minds opened toward Calvary.

Earlier in the day when the dull grind of an assembly's second day's routine had lulled to listlessness the majority of the commissioners of the Northern assembly, the report of the executive committee dealing with the deliverances of the special committee or Christian life and work struck everyone present. The evils growing out of the widespread laxity regarding marriage and divorce have increased, and the committee said so in no uncertain tone. The Rev. W. H. C. Covell, D. D., and Mark A. Matthews, D. D., voicing the sentiments of a responsive following.

All are slumbering. Lawyers, doctors, ministers and churches are slumbering when such evils are growing with an unprecedented stimulus. The committees thought, and the effort to arouse

DEMOCRATS BAR PUBLIC HEARINGS ON TARIFF BILL

Leaders Indorsed in Their Determination to Have Measure Referred to Finance Committee.

JAMES BACKS PRESIDENT FOR FREE SUGAR STAND

Leaders Indorsed in Determination to Have Measure Referred to Finance Committee Without Hearings.

Washington, May 16.—Democratic leaders in the senate were indorsed late today in their determination to refer the Underwood tariff bill to the finance committee for consideration without public hearings. The Penrose-LaFollette amendment directing that public hearings be held was defeated by a vote of 41 to 35, and the motion of Senator Simmons to refer the bill was then passed without a roll call.

Two democrats, Senators Hansell and Thornton, of Louisiana, voted for the republican amendment. Senator Poindexter, of Washington, progressive, voted with the majority. Senator Jones, of Washington, republican, who previously had determined to vote against public hearings, announced that he had changed his mind because the finance subcommittee were giving private hearings to some interests which he thought should be public.

James Defends Wilson. The closing day of debates on the issue of hearings was enlivened with discussion of the democratic platform and its bearing on free sugar by Senator James, of Kentucky, who vigorously defended the stand taken by President Wilson for free sugar, declared that the party had stood for free sugar and campaigned on it, and declared that he would not find a man President Wilson ever had told him who opposed to free sugar.

Senators Smoot, LaFollette and Clark wound up the debate on behalf of the public hearings amendment. Senator Smoot, declaring that the democratic party would be put out of power for another quarter of a century as a result of its tariff bill. "The edict has gone forth," said Senator Smoot, "and the tariff bill is now to be taken here as in the house, where it was taken in secret caucus. I know there are democrats here who do not believe the bill is just and righteous, but who are willing to bow the head to the demand of office and ease the lash of party expediency."

Senator Newlands, of Nevada, spoke briefly on the sugar schedule, protesting against sacrifice of the sugar production of this country to Cuba. Subcommittees to Report. The finance committee will meet next week to hear reports from the subcommittees engaged in considering the various schedules of the bill, and Chairman Simmons hopes to report the bill to the senate by June 1.

Great interest was manifested in the final contest over the hearings question, the galleries being packed and the private gallery was filled with guests and in the president's gallery were the Misses Margaret and Eleanor Wilson, and a party of friends. They remained until a vote had been taken. Senator Georgia, clashed with the Utah senator called by his colleagues to compare the bill as it now appears and when it comes from the finance committee. "I have no doubt," he said, "that the cotton schedule will be changed. I have no doubt that some interests will be taken care of. Why cotton any more than wool, any more than sugar?"

"Does the senator mean that the rate on cotton is to be changed because people in my state are interested in it?" demanded Senator Smith. "Does he mean to say that he has not promised that the cotton rate shall be changed?" retorted Senator Smoot. "I have promised nobody anything. Not a suggestion has come to me for a raise in the cotton rate from Georgia, but suggestions have come from New England for raises."

Purpose of Democrats. Senator Smith indicated that the purpose of the democrats was to have a measure approved by subcommittees, then by the full democratic membership of the finance committee and then by a caucus. Senator James, accredited with speaking for the democrats, was in the platform in a speech in the senate today as committing the president and the democratic party to free sugar. His remarks were in reply to declarations by Senator Hansell and Senator-elect Broussard, of Louisiana, that it did not.

In the gallery was Secretary Tumulty, who went to hear the reply to the anti-free sugar democracy who for those flat in a fashionable apartment house the shooting occurred, and who was slightly wounded during the fray, came to this city from Vincennes, Ind.

SHRINERS TO GIVE WELCOME TO ADAIR

Great Parade Will Mark the Home-Coming of Men Who Won the Next Convention for the Gate City.

With trumpets, bells and drums, with five hundred Shriners in full regalia, with camels from the park and with all the other concomitants of a triumph such as rarely ever did Rome accord to one of her victorious generals, will Atlanta welcome home Potentate Howell Adair and his delegates when they arrive at the Terminal station today at 12:40 o'clock.

All local Shriners, of whom there are about seven hundred, are summoned to be at the Masonic Temple at 12:15 o'clock sharp with regalia and all the other trappings of their order. A full brass band has been engaged and the camels from Grant park have been enlisted to join in the festivities. At the Temple all will be put in marching order and will proceed to the station to welcome the victorious potentate when he arrives.

The park elephant also received a summons to be present, but he grew so restive in anticipation of the great parade when the drum corps and the main body of the Shriners who went to Dallas arrived, said Mr. Besig to a representative of The Constitution last night, "but they will not arrive until Sunday morning." Mr. Adair and the three other delegates from the local temple who were accredited to Dallas convention with him will get here tomorrow ahead of the hundred other Shriners who went from Atlanta, and we think that the work they did in securing the 131st convention for Dallas an ovation that will be long remembered. Let us get together in real Atlanta style and show him how much we appreciate the victory he has won.

So there will be something doing at the Terminal station when Potentate Adair and his conferrers arrive from Dallas today.

Clark Howell Attends Meeting Executive Campaign Committee of National Committee.

Washington, May 16.—The campaign for democratic supremacy at the polls in 1914 and 1915 was opened here today, when the executive campaign committee of the democratic national committee organized and discussed preliminary plans. The committee agreed upon permanent headquarters in Washington, the organization of an educational campaign and harmonious co-operation with the democratic congressional committee, with a continuing militant party organization from now until after the next presidential election at least. Representatives A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, caucus chairman of the house, and recognized as the president's spokesman in that body, was made chairman, and Rolla Wells, of St. Louis, treasurer of the democratic national committee, treasurer.

WEST PEACHTREE GRADE ADOPTED

Street Committee of the General Council Appropriates $9,000 for Big Improvement for Thoroughfare.

The street committee of the general council, after numerous discussions with the property owners on West Peachtree, passed up the grade for that thoroughfare and appropriated $9,000 to the project at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

The profiles agreed on by the committee and which will be recommended to council and adopted changed the grade at Alexander street from 61-3 per cent to 4 per cent, and below that point changes the grade from an average of 2 per cent, which will make the street first-class and capable of taking a smooth pavement.

Project Launched Year Ago. The project for regrading West Peachtree was launched by progressive owners a little less than a year ago, when $5,000 was secured for getting an approach at Baker street.

At the Baker street point the street will take a smooth pavement and will become a first-class street for traffic of all sorts and will be a great relief to Peachtree north of Baker. In addition, making West Peachtree a fine thoroughfare in every respect, the improvement will benefit all parallel streets.

The grading and paving as now projected will end to North avenue and when this part of the work is completed it is the intention of the property owners to extend it further.

James Hamilton Lewis To Deliver Baccalaureate Address at University

Athens, Ga., May 16.—(Special.)—Hon. James Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, elected last fall to the United States senate, today notified Chancellor Barrow, of the University of Georgia, that he will accept the invitation to deliver the annual literary address before the graduates on commencement day at the June commencement occasion.

Colonel Lewis fills the place vacated by the recent resignation by Judge Emory Speer, of Macon, who wrote the chagellee that business engagements would absolutely prevent his being present here during commencement.

POSITION OF MAYOR ALARMS OPPOSITION

Foes Say His Stand Will Strip Department Heads of Right to Name Assistants.

The attack Mayor James G. Woodward is making on so-called "boss rule," which his foes predict will strip department heads of the city government of the right to nominate subordinates, has precipitated a stiff fight in council and the city boards.

Alarmed at the strenuous muster by the mayor to resist Police Chief James L. Beavers' move to elect a sergeant of his own choice, and which resulted in "deadlocking" the police commission last Tuesday night, foes of the movement caulked the situation Friday morning.

The first blow was struck through the park board, which President J. O. Cochran called into special meeting at 2 o'clock to elect playground directors nominated by the director and approved by the playgrounds committee. There were only six members of the board present. They were: President J. O. Cochran, Charles I. Brannan, C. A. Pitts, Frank Reynolds, W. P. Anderson and F. J. Green, recently elected to the board.

The absentees were Mayor Woodward, Frank Wilby, R. A. Burnett, L. B. Bond, M. B. Young and Councilman S. S. Shepard, chairman of the park committee of council and ex-officio member of the park board.

The only other matter discussed at the meeting was the resolution urging council to purchase, through the finance committee, the Mosely estate of 35 acres for $45,000 for park purposes.

Didn't Get Formal Notice. "I didn't receive a formal notice of the meeting, and I doubt if others were asked to meet with the board, and therefore, illegal," Mayor Woodward said. "Ho, ever, that don't bother me. The appointments the board made were not important and would probably have gone through without a hitch."

The appointees of the board are Misses Martha Akers, Charlotte Underwood, Virginia Scott, Eugenia Jones, Annie Lee McLee and V. M. Francis. Alice Carey and Willie Kelley were appointed directors for the colored playgrounds.

IN LOOP OF DEATH DORSEY MAY HAVE CLUE TO MURDERER

Noose Found Knotted Around Neck of Mary Phagan Being Carefully Examined by Officers.

BURNS RIGHT-HAND MAN NOW PROBING MYSTERY

Fund Started by The Constitution for Purpose of Bringing Noted Detective to Atlanta Has Reached $1,500.

In the noose found knotted around the throat of Mary Phagan's lifeless body, Solicitor Dorsey and headquarters detectives aver they possess a valuable clue to the girl's murderer. It is being inspected by experts, who also are examining specimens of cord picked up here and there in the factory building in which the child was slain. Expecting to find a knot which compares with that which was strung to strangle the victim, detectives are scouring every portion of the plant's premises.

The knot in the wrapping cord is looped, sailor-fashion, in an inextricable knot. No notice, the sleuths say, could form it so well when the body was discovered, the noose fitted so tightly around the throat that it had formed a purple, trench-like scar in the flesh.

Knot Tied by Professional. The solicitor and detectives hope to follow up the clue by comparing the death loop with specimens found in the pencil factory. But few amateurs, it is said, could tie a knot of this expert enough to the such an intricate knot as the one with which Mary Phagan was strangled.

The chief of the W. J. Burns criminal department of investigation, the right-hand man of the famous sleuth, has arrived in Atlanta and is making an investigation of the Mary Phagan mystery preparatory to the arrival of the noted sleuth. He is stopping at a downtown hotel and spent Friday in looking over the situation.

Colonel Thomas B. Felder stated to a Constitution reporter last night that the assignment of his most efficient specialist, a detective of the name of Burns is taking in the local case. Burns has been given a description of the murder and its salient points by Colonel Felder, and has been enthusiastically over the prospect of solving it.

Will Catch Guilty Man. "We will catch the guilty man," declared Mr. Felder last night, "and we won't be long about it. I am confident of every Phagan's murderer will be cleared in less than a month."

More than $1,500 was raised Friday for the Burns' employment fund. A large number of influential businessmen sent checks during the day, while many assured Mr. Felder that they would subscribe immediately. Those promoting the movement anticipate raising the sum within the next few days.

Burns will come shortly after June 1, on which date he arrives in New York from Europe. Colonel Thomas B. Felder said Friday that he was positive the great detective was coming.

The names of subscribers according to Mr. Felder will be withheld who such desire is expressed. In conjunction with The Constitution's move, The Journal and The Georgian have contributed $100. Homer George, manager of the Atlanta theater, sent a check for $10.

Must Get Own Information. Solicitor Dorsey has announced that he will adopt the same attitude toward Detective Burns as he maintained toward the Pinkertons. He will gladly receive information and evidence, but will withhold all developments unearthed through his office.

"PRESBYTERIANS ARE UNITED IN PURPOSE"

Editors Attending the General Assemblies Are the Guests of Dr. Thornwell Jacobs.

"We are one—united in spirit and purpose—and whatever our differences in organization may be, we want the assemblies in Atlanta to carry out to the world the message of our oneness of heart."

This was the central thought expressed by nearly two dozen well-known Presbyterians, including editors and representatives of the religious press of all four Presbyterian bodies, gathered at the Capital City club yesterday for a luncheon tendered them by Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, editor of The Westminster Magazine, published in Atlanta.

It was the first time in the history of Presbyterianism that the editors of different assemblies had gathered for a conference together, and their discussion was of deep moment, as it forecasted the strain of the editorials and articles that are to follow the assemblies in Atlanta, when the editors and writers have all returned to their homes to disseminate the results of their gathering among the hosts of Presbyterians they represent.

MacDonald Praised Spirit.

James A. MacDonald, managing editor of The Toronto Globe, who is known the most for his stirring and forceful oratory, Atlanta has ever seen, made a strong, earnest address before the guests assembled around the luncheon table, in which he praised the spirit that prevails over the assemblies in Atlanta.

"You will solve your problem in time," said Mr. MacDonald, "and the splendid spirit that prevails over the Atlanta gathering augurs well for the future of Presbyterianism. We had such a provision of separate organizations in Canada, and we just gradually grew into a united body, first by becoming closer affiliated in spirit and purpose."

The writers and thinkers assembled at the luncheon, however, were not in favor of organic union of the Presbyterian bodies within the near future, and they advised going very slowly in all talk of "union."

"In many ways it is better for us all that we are divided in organization, and there is no need for us to rush

STREET MEETINGS BY PRESBYTERIANS

Ministers Are Planning to Reach Men Who Seldom Attend Any of the Churches in the City.

If Mayor Woodward gives his permission today, some of the biggest Presbyterian ministers in America will preach on the streets of Atlanta every day next week.

At a meeting of the subcommittee on evangelism of the Presbyterian assembly held yesterday, it was decided that this great epoch-making assembly of three great denominations should have a vital influence upon the lives of the men of Atlanta, who rarely ever darken the doors of a church.

This morning Dr. Hugh K. Walker, of this city, will ask formal permission to hold these services every night about 7 o'clock, and if granted, Marietta street, near Five Points, will probably be the place where the largest meetings will be held.

Torrey Will Hold Meetings.

Dr. R. E. Torrey, of Philadelphia, son of the famous evangelist, and himself a great leader of men, will be the first man to hold these services, it is said.

The meeting held just before the union mass meetings at the Auditorium, and will be of the nature that will appeal to men who will not attend churches. Besides Dr. Torrey, other forceful men, leaders in their communities, will be invited to preach.

It is the intention of Dr. Walker and his subcommittee that every man in the city of Atlanta shall hear the gospel preached next week. These services will begin Monday evening.

Another plan of reaching the men by mass meetings, which will be held daily, beginning Monday at 12:15 p. m., in the Grand theater, lasting forty-five minutes. These meetings are intended primarily for the vast mass men who will spend their lunch hour there. A number of the big men will address these meetings.

Also a number of the large factories will be visited, and short evangelistic meetings held daily, especially at the noon hour.

Meeting For Men Only.

As the opening gun for this series of evangelistic services, a mass meeting will be held Sunday afternoon in the Auditorium at 6 o'clock, and will be a personal appeal will be made to the men to enter the Christian life. This meeting will be for men only, and an urgent invitation is issued to every man in Atlanta to make an effort to be present. This meeting will be held on new ground, it is said.

President John Willis Baer, of Los Angeles, will make the address of the afternoon. Dr. William Edward Redepf, with his national male quartet will lead the singing, assisted by a double quartet.

It is hoped that by this series of meetings every man in the city of Atlanta will be reached with the message of Christianity by the time that the assemblies close.

This reception will be the only social gathering of the three organizations, which are now meeting in Atlanta, which lends added interest to this event. The shaded campus of Agnes Scott, comprising 18 acres, with its rolling lawns and gravel walks, will prove an ideal spot for the reception. # NASHVILLE SELECTED BY SOUTHERN BAPTISTS

Proposed Amendment Allowing Women on Floor as Delegates Goes Over Until Next Year.

St. Louis, May 16.—The Southern Baptist convention chose Nashville, Tenn., as the next place of meeting and fixed May 13, 1914, as the date.

The Rev. Dr. George W. McDaniel, of Richmond, Va., will preside at the convention session. The Rev. Forrest Smith, of Sherman, Texas, was named as alternate.

Nashville was chosen after a contest over the proposition to make Chattanooga the permanent meeting place.

A movement, which has been going on quietly for several years to organize all the Baptists west of the Mississippi river into a separate convention, was met by the introduction of resolutions by President F. T. Mullins, of the Southern Baptist theological seminary of Louisville, which were adopted, expressing feelings of fraternity and sympathy for the work being done in the theological seminaries at Fort Worth, Texas, and Liberty, Mo.

For Free Education.

The question of giving free educational advantages to young men who wish to enter the Baptist ministry was brought before the convention by Mr. Mullins. He offered a resolution to call on the various states in the convention for a share of $18,000, the money to go to the school of which he is the head and which is in debt for students' expenses to that amount. He said he believed that if the Baptists would offer free education to ministerial students three hundred million converts could be won in China alone during the next 25 years. The resolution was adopted.

It was decided by the officers of the convention that the proposed amendment to the constitution allowing women on the floor as delegates would have to go over until next year, as it had not been introduced on the first day's session.

The night session consisted of a symposium of evangelist and missionary fields, in which the mountain schools of the southern states were given a prominent place. The Baptists are paying special attention to the Cumberland and the highland regions.

Among the speakers were the Rev. F. J. Paez, of Colon, Cuba, and the Rev. M. N. McCall, of Havana, Cuba, who have charge of the Cuban field.

The Women's Missionary union re-elected its officers.

Washington, May 16.—The international bankers, who furnished the money for the Brazilian coffee valorization scheme were denounced today by Senator Norris during the tariff debate.

INVESTIGATED SEVERAL COLLEGES AND THEN ENTERED SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE

Mr. Buford Summers Is Secured a Good Position With a Railroad Company by the Southern Shorthand and Business University.

The literary schools and colleges are closing for the summer months, and their pupils and students are rolling at the various Southern Shorthand and Business University, to add to their store of knowledge a practical Business Education.

Remember, that the quickest way to obtain a position after leaving the literary schools is to attend the course in Shorthand or bookkeeping. No trouble then to secure a good job.

Mr. J. Buford Summers, who has just launched upon a business career, can testify to the above stated fact. While in the Southern Shorthand and Business University, he observed the students almost daily going out into nice positions, and then his name came around. He had been a faithful student, an energetic worker, and a mighty good fellow, so nothing could keep him from securing a good position. A letter just received by the Southern from Mr. Summers, he says:

"After investigating several other Business Colleges, I finally decided upon a course in the Southern Shorthand and Business University. I shall never regret my choice of a school.

The college has an excellent corps of instructors, and its managers, Messrs. Briscoe and Arnold, obtained a splendid position after completing my course.

I shall always look with pleasure upon the time I spent at the S. S. & B. U.

If you want a position, you'll have to take a business course, sooner or later. Don't postpone longer such an important matter.

If you have a diploma from the Southern Business University I will give you a position," said a prominent business man to a young fellow applying for a job.

The Southern is an old school—been running 47 years! It has a large faculty, teaches the well known systems of shorthand, bookkeeping, etc. Plenty of typewriters on which to practice, and every teacher of it. Its graduates send other students, and that tells the story of merit. They keep the school humming.

SLAYERS BY PROXY.

President Wilson has wrought a public service by treading hard upon the toes of one of the cruellest and most dangerous elements in this nation—the slayers by proxy, the jingoes who, recklessly and without conscience, seek habitually to involve the country in trouble by which neither their property nor their own precious necks would be imperiled.

We are in a fair way to settle amicably our differences with Japan. If war is ever had been threatened it is due chiefly to irresponsible and incendiary agencies in America, abetted by flannel-mouthed and dense demagogues in California.

The slayers by proxy are fully apprised of these facts, none more so. Yet deliberately they conspire against the peace of two great nations, work feverishly and without conscience to incite prejudice and hold up twin-mirrors in which the ignorant people of this country see a distorted image of an embattled Orient and the people of Japan a frothing and hostile image of America.

BRING BURNS HERE. William J. Burns, the world's greatest detective, should be able to solve the Mary Phagan case, the greatest criminal mystery and the most revolting crime in the history of Atlanta.

It is useless to rehash the Phagan case. Every person in Atlanta is familiar with its details. Law-abiding sentiment in this city ever demands that crime be expiated.

The Constitution has confidence that if the mystery can be solved at all it can be solved by Burns. His record of detection has yet to show an important failure to its credit.

WILSON'S BACKBONE.

President Woodrow Wilson has told the newspaper correspondents at Washington that he will accept no compromises on the tariff bill.

Had presidents previously placed as is Mr. Wilson today developed his backbone, tariff revision would long ago have materialized.

A BRAVE FLORIDA SENATOR.

The south and the nation should not lose sight of the courageous and statesman-like course of Senator Bryan, of Florida, with regard to the tariff. Recently he received a red-hot telegram from some of his orange-growing constituents protesting bitterly against the reduction of duties on citrus fruits.

New News of Yesterday

By E. J. EDWARDS. (Copyright, 1913, by The Constitution.) In the summer of 1876 Benjamin H. Bristow, who had been for two years secretary of the treasury in President Grant's second administration, retired from office so that he might accept profitable openings for the practice of law which had come to him unsolicited from certain wealthy interests in New York city.

General Bristow, who gained not only so large a professional practice that he was unable to take more than an occasional part in social or public occasions, was nevertheless so popular that he usually held quite a levee when taking his luncheon.

It sometimes seemed as though General Bristow would not be able to finish his luncheon within the hour which he gave to himself. Men stood around his table chatting with him; he almost always had two or three companions at the luncheon table.

I was taking luncheon at this club one day with William R. Grace, who was twice mayor of New York, and who organized the greatest mercantile lines of steam between the United States and South America in the early nineties.

"I never take luncheon at this club," said Mayor Grace, "without being impressed with the attention which is paid to General Bristow. Just look now at the table around which he is sitting. There are two or three men who stand talking with him, and their manner betrays their respect and admiration for him."

"You will remember that on the Sunday before the convention met Blaine was prostrated by a sunstroke as he was entering the church in which he worshipped in Washington. The next day one of Bristow's friends suggested to him that he call upon Mr. Blaine to inquire about him and to express his sympathy."

"Bristow hesitated, but he was at last persuaded to make the call. 'Something occurred at the house which grievously humiliated and mortified General Bristow. I have heard that he was personally abused by somebody in Blaine's house.'

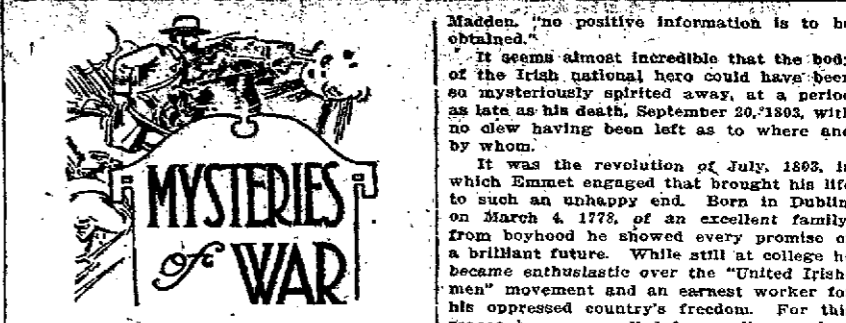

THE FIGHT.

By Philip Wetmore, Secretary Prison Association of Georgia.

We believe that if the state takes custody of an individual as his keeper, it thereby becomes chargeable with all the duties of guardianship. If the state presumes to deprive one of its citizens of liberty, it may do this only for the purpose of working out that citizen's ultimate good.

We charge that Georgia's penal system is immoral, because it gives no thought to the future welfare of the convict.

The World's Mysteries

WHERE IS ROBERT EMMET BURIED?

Robert Emmet is Ireland's greatest patriot. He expresses to the Irish everything that is good and noble, and to them his name will live as long as history because of his efforts in behalf of their country.

It is considerably more than a century since Emmet was put to death, and since that time historians, patriots and many others have tried to find the place where his body lies.

Emmet's brother-in-law believed the body was buried in St. Michael's church, and he said he had held a conversation with the man who interred it there and who said a large unmarked stone was erected over the grave.

A Story of the Moment

By WALT MASON, The Famous Poet.

HARD LUCK OF POETS

"What book are you reading?" inquired the low-browed man. "The poetical works of William Collins," replied the professor. "He was a great man. He left few poems, but they are gems. Nothing could be finer than some of his odes. He was a most unfortunate man. His life was one of misery, and he died insane."

"It's too bad to see great men die with bob-o-links in their cupolas," said the low-browed man, sympathetically, "but the surprising thing is that poets ever retain possession of their faculties. They have a great deal to contend with. I used to live at the same boarding house with a poet, and that man had more varieties of trouble than you could keep cases on with an adding machine."

"At first the ladies and gents in the boarding house had a sort of sneaking pity for him, but he soon wore that out. His chambermaid about his person, and he'd flash them just as though they were deadly weapons. You couldn't mention a wedding, or a funeral, or an elopement, but he had a poem to fit the occasion. He had a squeaky voice, as though his larynx needed greasing, and it set our teeth on edge to hear him read. We stood it for a while, just because we felt sorry for him, but finally we began rebuking him in unmistakable terms. Sometimes we pelted him with egg shells and at other times we set fire to his manuscript while he was reading it, and he awoke from his rapture to find that he was holding a holoquist in his hands. There's nothing more gratifying than to have people read their own poetry to you, especially if they butt

It seems almost incredible that the body of the Irish national hero could have been so mysteriously spirited away, at a period as late as his death, September 20, 1803, with no clue having been left as to where and by whom.

It was the revolution of July, 1803, in which Emmet engaged that brought his life to such an unhappy end. Born in Dublin, on March 4, 1778, of an excellent family, from boyhood he showed every promise of a brilliant future.

Ponderous Personages SAMSON

By GEORGE FITCH, Author of "At Good Old Sitwah."

Samson, the strongest man in history, was born in the tribe of Dan so long ago that the reporting facilities in his time were very crude and uncertain. He was destined from birth to break all the strength test records in his tribe and grow up from babyhood without punishment.

This caused great indignation among the Philistines and it was voted to kill Samson. Just for this Samson caught 300 foxes, tied them together by the tails with firebrands between and set them loose in the Philistines' wheat fields. To punish him, his own people turned him over to the Philistines. However, he slew 1,000 of them with the jawbone of an ass, which remained an international record until people began making speeches recently against child labor and pure food and drug laws.

By this time Samson had become such a pest to the Philistines that they let him severely alone and took amallions whenever they could to discourage him from assisting with them. Samson served as one of the Judges of Israel for twenty years, never indulging in a hair cut and becoming stronger all the time. When they shut the gates of Gaza on him and prepared to exterminate him, he took the gates of their hinges and carried them twenty miles—the earliest instance of Hallowe'en pranks on record.

A beautiful daughter of Philistine, and a love affair ensued which caused a great deal of remark. Delilah loved Samson, but objected to his appearing as a human mattress, and one night she sheared his hair off. Then she called in her relatives to administer to him when Samson arose to knock their heads together he found that his strength had departed with his hair.

After this the Philistines took Samson and put out his eyes, harnessed him up to a corn mill and treated him like a democratic majority comforting the republican party. Samson was a slave for many years and in time his captors carelessly economized by denying him a barber. One day they led him out to make fun at him at their national convention and Samson, who was now quite shaggy, pulled the great pillars of the hall out from under the roof and died happily amid the general ruin.

The moral of Samson's life has been written often, but the sad lack of such a man with such a forearm development is every day evident in this country. If Samson could pull up a few tracks in front of the street cars which try to run past him and could arrange to have himself assaulted by a few wracking gangs in a New York municipal election, the results would be a great blessing to the country.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR U. P. MINISTERS

United Presbyterians Pay Tributes to Thirty-Two Pastors Who Died in Service.

A memorial service in honor of the United Presbyterian ministers who passed away during the past year was held yesterday afternoon in the Central Presbyterian church by the United Presbyterians of this city.

Rev. Dr. J. D. Wood presided over the meeting and called the roll of those who had gone to rest. Rev. John A. Henderson, D. D., of Sugar Creek, Ohio, delivered the memorial address.

"It is the work of God which these men did," he said. "Labor goes before birth. No one knows better the joy of watching a soul becoming born again than the minister."

"But before such can happen there precedes the labor, which is quickly forgotten as the joy of soul-saving and soul-bringing enters his heart. They rest—they have reached their reward, which is rest. But our duty lies before us. Thirty-two ministers have fallen out of the ranks in the past year. Only half that number have entered it. We must pray that more will be sent out to the fields which are white with the harvest."

No Free Organ Concert.

It has been found necessary to abandon the idea of having a music festival chorus concert Saturday evening for the Presbyterian delegates. It was originally expected by the Music Festival association to hold the concert at the customary hour, from 8:30 to 10 o'clock. It was found that the only time left open was from about 7:30 to 8 o'clock, and it was impossible to get the chorus together for that time.

There will not be any free organ concert Sunday afternoon.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF PLANNERS INVITED

Atlanta Has Fine Chance to Secure One of Country's Most Important Conventions.

It is quite probable the next meeting of the National Conference of City Planning will be held in Atlanta. These conferences are attended by about 300 delegates from the leading cities of the United States and Canada, composed of a percentage of the highest rank. More than ten cities have delivered formal invitations for the next gathering, among them being New York, St. Louis, Toronto, Detroit, Philadelphia, Louisville, Memphis, Charles J. Haden, city engineer, credentials from Governor Brown, Mayor Woodward, the Atlanta chamber of commerce and the Atlanta Convention bureau delivered a formal invitation to the conference to hold its next meeting here. All invitations were referred to the executive committee, which will take the subject up in a few weeks. Atlanta will be heard again at the meeting of that committee.

Mr. Haden in delivering his invitation said in part:

"Atlanta is about 1,100 feet above the sea level—the greatest altitude of any city in the Rocky mountains, giving an average temperature corresponding to southern Ohio. You will find our climate ideal at your meeting time, in May. We have as many skyscrapers as Cincinnati and by faith in our city and the strength of home money we have maintained our city real estate values on a parity with St. Louis and Cleveland.

"We do the third largest insurance business in the United States, being only exceeded by New York and Chicago. We have doubled our population in twelve years. There were only six inland cities which stood for the United States in the Metropolitan Opera company. Among these was Atlanta. Our box receipts exceeded any one of the other five cities. Caruso said that Atlanta furnished the largest audience and the biggest receipts to which he had ever sung.

"It is the metropolis of that cotton south, whose chief product brings from across the sea nearly $400,000,000 of value to our country and a balance of trade in favor of America.

"You gentlemen are experts in the rating of cities, and upon any basis of measurement which you may name, Atlanta challenges to show down any city not more than double its population on earth. And this out of the ashes of the civil war, within barely more than forty years. We would like the stimulus which your meeting would bring to our city, and extend to you a hand as glad as the morning song of the birds and a welcome as warm as our southern sunshine."

FIRST CHRISTIAN BUSY.

Sunday School Working Hard to Keep World Title.

The First Christian Bible school are expecting to have an immense audience at Bible school Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The interest which helped win for this school the honor of being the largest Bible school in the world on May 4, has not abated, and the famous "Flying Squadron" is still at work in the by-ways and hedges.

This school is preparing for a unique day, instituting themselves and which will be on May 25, and is known as "Flower day." Every scholar will bring a bouquet of flowers, which will afterwards be distributed to hospitals, penal and charitable institutions over the city. It is expected that at least three thousand will assemble in the First Christian church that morning.

One of the features of the institutional work of the First Christian was the "May Fest day," held on Friday. For dinner and supper in the hospitable dining rooms of the church, hundreds of Atlantans gathered during the day and evening, including a large number of business men. The cooking, which was done in the church kitchen under the direction of the ladies of the church, was pronounced a perfection of the art.

RAIN ALL OVER STATE, BUT NOT IN ATLANTA

In and Around This City There Has Only Been .04 Inch in Twenty Days.

Showers are again on the program today and a rain that will lay the dust and freshen up gardens and flower beds is due to fall. The same prediction was made for Friday, and by a curious coincidence, practically every weather station in the state reported some rainfall except the Atlanta station.

In and around Atlanta there was only .04 inch of rainfall within the past 20 days. The record growth for the springtime is 20 days without a drop of rain. This was in May, 1879, shortly after the local weather bureau was established. The longest growth ever known locally in 31 years of weather history was 29 days in May, September and October, 1881.

Temperatures for the present week have been about normal for this time of year. On Friday the mercury climbed to 82 degrees shortly after the noon hour, and it is due to go to 80 degrees today.

MANAGER OF HOTEL MAKES APPEARANCE IN BUTLER'S ROLE

Hundreds who have seen striding across the hotel lobby the military figure of R. Frank Taylor, resident manager of the Piedmont, will have the chance of seeing him in the servile countenance of an English fashionable butler, at the coming Players' club production of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest."

At the rehearsal Friday night on the stage of the Grand, Warren A. Rogers, dramatic director of the Players' club, declared that Mr. Taylor is going to be one of the hits of the performance in his interpretation of the butler's role. It will be his first appearance in the cast of the Players' club.

While the date of the production is yet indefinite, on account of tentative engagements of moving pictures for the Grand, the play will be produced within the next two weeks, the date probably being announced in a day or two.

BOSTON WILL WELCOME OLD GUARD OF ATLANTA

Elaborate Preparations Are Being Made for the Entertainment of the Visitors.

Information has been received from Boston indicating that the ceremonies incident to the visit of the Old Guard of the Gate City Guard in that city constitute the most elaborate honors ever shown a southern military organization by a northern city.

Colonel J. F. Burke, in command of the Old Guard, has received letters stating that the hosts in Boston, the Kinsley post and the Ancient and Honorable, are making great preparations for the entertainment of the southerners, including a big banquet at the American house, with Sam J. Eider, Sam L. Powers and ex-Commander Morse, of the Ancients, among the speakers.

It is stated that the Boston newspapers are already calling eloquent attention to the significance of the visit and are expressing gratification that Colonel Burke, who arranged the original peace commission in 1873, will return this year in command of the Old Guard.

Colonel Burke has sent to Boston, at his request, some old war-time photographs, showing himself and other veterans as they appeared in the sixties.

One of the pictures shows Colonel Burke in command of the Charleston Zeave Cadets, the command which took care of the federal prisoners in the casemates of Castle Pinckney in Charleston harbor in 1861.

All preparations have been completed for the departure of the Old Guard from Atlanta Monday morning, between fifty and sixty members will make the trip. They will assemble at the Piedmont hotel at 9:30 o'clock and will march to the Terminal station with military escort, where a special train will be waiting to take them to Washington.

INDIGENT MINISTERS WILL GET MORE HELP

United Presbyterians Plan to Prevent Necessity of Asking Public for Support.

In order that the aged and infirm ministers of the United Presbyterian church may not have to ask the public for support, the general assembly of this denomination at its meeting Friday morning in the Central Congregational church, voted to increase the appropriations for ministerial relief from 1 1/2 to 3 per cent.

A special committee will be appointed to make the indigent ministers feel that they are not objects of charity, and it was suggested that some other term than "relief" be used in such cases.

Steps will be taken to increase the salaries of the ministers, although whether any immediate action will be taken has not yet been decided. All ministers coming from other Presbyterian denominations will be placed upon the beneficiary list immediately, instead of having to wait the former five years.

The assembly placed its unofficial approval on a plan for union of churches so that work along similar lines can be carried out without any immediate organic union.

On recommendation of the committee on ministerial relief it was decided to place ministers who come from the other Presbyterian denominations upon the beneficiary list on the same terms as the United Presbyterian ministers.

Reports of various committees were heard during the day, among them being the report of the committee on young people's work.

TRUST COMPANY OF GA. DOUBLES THIS ESTATE

Georgia newspapers the other day gave an account of the dissolution of an estate which left a young lady penniless. The father, who had a comfortable business in a Georgia city, died several years ago, leaving his only child, a daughter, an estate of $3,000. A man, a friend of the family, who was then considered honest and capable, was appointed trustee for the daughter's property. On coming of age she called upon him for an accounting and delivery of her inheritance and HE IMMEDIATELY DISAPPEARED. He is still among the "missing," and THE YOUNG LADY'S INHERITANCE IS GONE.

The other news item, not heretofore published, relates to an Atlanta lady who died, leaving an only child, a son of ten years. SHE HAD WISELY MADE A WILL IN WHICH THE TRUST COMPANY OF GEORGIA was appointed EXECUTOR and GUARDIAN of the property of her son. From his inheritance, which was officially appraised at $16,500, the boy was supported comfortably and given a college education. When he reached his majority, less than a month ago, the TRUST COMPANY OF GEORGIA, his Guardian, turned over to him property appraised at $31,348, thus, with his maintenance, more than doubling the estate.

PROPHECY OF UNION CALLED INEVITABLE

Message Carried by Dr. T. V. Moore From Northern to Southern Church.

Organic union of the Presbyterian churches was prophesied as inevitable when Dr. T. V. Moore, of San Francisco, of the northern church, carried greetings to the southern Presbyterian assembly yesterday. With enthusiasm greeted his remarks, and members of the southern assembly vied with one another in their endorsement of the overture, which drew forth an eloquent response from Dr. J. Lyons, the newly elected moderator who presided over the deliberations of the southern assembly. Dr. Lyons said in part:

"We desire and expect ever increasing and closer fellowship. Our history comes from common sources, our traditions are one, our faith is one, our spirit is one, and this is real oneness. Today we are not one, and yet not two. But we look alike as sisters do."

"And the more we look alike, the more we feel each one its complemented. The peculiar genius of Presbyterianism for separation and reunion has cast a new constellation in the spiritual heavens of these three heavenly bodies."

Anxious for Union.
"We come as one regiment of the Presbyterian army to another," said Dr. Moore, in concluding his overture from the northern church. "I am yearning for some way to come into closer physical contact with your church, which really is my church. Is there any consideration strong enough to make it justifiable for those who are really one to remain apparently divided?"

The appeal of Dr. Moore made a profound impression on the southern assembly, not only because of the substance of the address but because the man himself was pre-eminently qualified, of all men, to hear the felicitations of the northern assembly. For southern brethren. Four years ago, Dr. Moore was a minister in the southern assembly, as was his brother, and his father before him was one of the most beloved of all the southern ministers.

"I am a minister of the northern church only because of physical necessity," said Dr. Moore, "for it is better to work in the northern church than to die here."

The reading of ninety overtures by the stated clerk was the order of the day Friday, and though many of the communications were technical and involved, the announcement of the substance only facilitated the direct reference of all letters to the proper committees.

The forenoon session was featured by several attacks on the increased work of the committee on foreign correspondence, and Dr. R. C. Reed, of Columbia, S. C., the defeated candidate for moderator, took an aggressive part in the battle for special committees to relieve the committee on foreign correspondence. The committee on bills and overtures was swamped with communications, among which the most sensational were the change in the ecclesiastical year, Romanism and the attitude of the church toward sobriety.

Organic Union Questions.
All questions of organic union were referred to a special committee upon the recommendation of Dr. Cammel, seconded by Dr. Fraser, another of the defeated candidates for moderator. This followed the introduction of resolutions by Dr. Fraser postponing the consideration of organic union till a subsequent assembly, because, it was argued, a discussion of the organic union would be inappropriate at the present time. Following an adverse ruling by the moderator, Dr. Fraser withdrew his resolutions, which were then referred to a special committee.

A fight on the "brief statement" of the doctrine of the United States Presbyterian church was precipitated when two members of the committee refused to sign their names to the majority report, which was read by Dr. James I. Vance, of Nashville, Tenn., because the chairman of the committee, Dr. R. V. Webb, of Louisville, Ky., joined with Dr. R. C. Reed in the declaration that the report of the committee was not in harmony with the doctrinal standards of the church. A strong resolution in favor of referring the "brief statement" of the church doctrine to each presbytery instead of to the general assembly indicates that there will be a lively fight against the report read by Dr. Vance, who was one of the majority members of the committee. Copies of the report, which were printed in pamphlet form, were handed each commissioner for his perusal.

Exercises at West Point.
West Point, Ga., May 15.—(Special.) The commencement exercises of the West Point public schools will be held May 26 at the Methodist church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. L. R. On May 27 the school concert in the school auditorium. The school will finish the examinations on school work on the 23d and will be closed for the summer after a successful year.

Many Conversions at Griffin.
Griffin, Ga., May 15.—(Special.)—As a result of recent revival campaigns in the churches of Griffin the pastors of three congregations report the addition of 119 new members on profession of faith. Of these the First Methodist church received 55, Hanister church 23 and the First Baptist church 22. It is announced that several others will yet join the various congregations of the city.

20 CARLOADS OF GEORGIA CATTLE SHIPPED TO WEST

Albany, Ga., May 15.—(Special.)—Twenty carloads of southwest Georgia cattle have been held up by the quarantine law at Albany and Camilla, after the shipment had begun to the first ranch, near Kansas City. The cattle were being sent to near Camilla and the four cars got as far as Albany, where the Central railroad refused to take them from the Coast line. The rest of the shipment was then held up at Camilla and the movement will not be resumed until every steer in the lot has been sprayed as required by the quarantine laws, which are designed to prevent spreading of the cattle tick.

Persons in this part of the state have been surprised to learn of the shipment of cattle in such large numbers from southwest Georgia to the west.

NEAR BEER DEALERS INDICTED ON FRIDAY

Selling Beer Without Paying State License Is Charge Against Them.

Indictments were returned yesterday by the Fulton county grand jury against five near beer dealers for selling beer without paying the state license of $300 for 1913. The men were ordered arrested on bench warrants and their bonds for release were placed at $750 apiece.

Julius Cohen, a Whitehall street dealer, was indicted on three counts and the following on one count: G. L. Carey, Ike Morris, J. M. Carroll and E. M. Casey.

All of the indictments are for misdemeanors and it is believed that an effort will be made to have them transferred to the criminal division of the city court.

These dealers are said to be the only ones who have not paid their state license for the current year, which was taken up by Governor Joseph M. Brown and which was urged investigated by him.

COHEN TRIES SUICIDE IN HOTEL IN VIDALIA

Vidalia, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—J. P. Cohen, of Dallas, Texas, a young traveling salesman, representing the West Disinfectant company, attempted to commit suicide in a local hotel last night by cutting his throat with a razor. The young man gashed his throat almost from ear to ear, barely missing the jugular vein.

The deed was done at 1:30 o'clock, and Cohen was found by the porter at 2 o'clock this morning. He was rushed to the hospital, where physicians are hopeful of saving his life. Two small knife wounds above the heart were also inflicted. The young man was conscious when found, although weak from loss of much blood.

He refused to give a cause for his act, and begged pitiously that his relatives be kept in ignorance of the deed.

HUGH ROBERTS, dean of southern league sport writers, and sporting editor of the Birmingham Age Herald, sarcastically remarks: "It is so seldom that any one in Atlanta says a pleasant word concerning anything which does not occur in Atlanta that the generosity of Johnson is doubly refreshing. This sarcasm was handed out as the result of our recent compliment to Birmingham fans for sending Pitcher Ray Boyd to Bone-setter Reese for repairs, expressing at the same time the hope that he be returned to them shortly in good condition. We see the good in people without looking in the mirror as seems to be the case in Staville judging from this sarcasm."

Chicago and Pittsburgh usually grabbed off a nice lead, but this time the eastern part of the circuit, but times are now changed. Teams Battle in Final Game of Series This Afternoon. Pitts Faces Morris—Count Now Stands Tech 2, Georgia 1—Hutchens, Henderson and Clements Drive in Georgia's Runs.

By Robert L. Hutchens
And the fans of thousands of fans Georgia succeeded in defeating the Tech Yellow Jackets by a 4 to 1 count. The attendance was by far the largest of the year, the crowds surging over the field making it necessary for the establishment of ground rules. The banks from first base around to third were one solid mass of spectators. The colors of both teams were much in evidence. It was a gala day for college boys young and old.

The Tech rooters took the stand early opening up with the band playing "Rambling Wreck" followed by the Georgia air of "Glorious Georgia." Hutchens singled over short advancing Bowden a sack Bowden scored the field making it necessary for the establishment of ground rules. Hutchens going to third Covington and Harrison both filed out.

The Jackets made the Georgia game lay aside the whitewash brush in the eighth when they succeeded in pushing across their lone tally. Amason got a life on Henderson's error. Donaldson failed to locate Corley and whiffed three. Attridge sent a Texas leaguer to right Amason taking third.

Eubanks laid down a beautiful bunt in front of the plate which he beat out to first Amason scoring. Attridge took third Wooten grounded to Clements who threw home catching second on the throw Wooten being safe at first Amason was sent in to run for Eubanks but Moore struck an end of Corley's benders putting the Jackets in a hole.

In the ninth Georgia came back with another run. With one gone Harrison grounded down third base line the ball hitting the sack and going into the crowd for free bases. Eubanks retired Corley with three putzlers. Clements singled to left scoring Harrison while Guinn filed out to Tech.

Both teams battled each other in the splendor of the field. Each team pulled off two fast double plays retiring men at the plate in the shaly periods of the game. In the seventh Moore's running catch of Covington's pop into left field with his back to the diamond was the fielding feature of the day. Captain Montague also went into the right garden after one that looked good to all but the crowd. The second scoring in the last jacket had been retired in the last inning.

Georgia Opened Strong
The Georgians started the Jackets bunting at first during the first inning. Eubanks led off with a smash through first and went to second on Eubanks wild hit to the plate. Guinn was thrown out trying to purloin third. Bowden fanned and Captain McWhorter led off with a double to Amason.

"TILLIE" SHAFER HAS DISAPPEARED
New York May 16—Considerable mystery developed today over the disappearance of Arthur Shafer of the New York Giants. Shafer played center field in the game against Pittsburgh at the Polo grounds yesterday and there was nothing about his conduct there to attract attention among his team mates.

Shafer failed to report at the grounds during the forenoon today and Manager McGraw said that he had not heard from him and did not know why he absented himself.

There was some trouble regarding Shafer's contract over his spring, and for a time it was reported at Los Angeles that he would retire from professional ball and assume charge of an automobile agency on the Pacific coast. He has since been reported practicing at Marshall Heights, Texas, and has been with the team until today. McGraw has moved Shafer about several times but so far as known Shafer never expressed dissatisfaction over this.

In Ancient Rome
(From The Roman Herald.)
Women took an active part in elections and many a man owed his success to the smiles of his fair supporters as much as to his own eloquence. Seneca ascribes his election as successor to the influence of his aunt who was tact and dignity enabled her to push the cause in the right quarters and even the great Julius Caesar might never have had his opportunity had it not been for a woman. The beautiful Servilia mother of Brutus made her house a center of propaganda in his favor and to it belongs the credit of obtaining his appointment as governor of Gaul. Inscriptions discovered in Pompeii record how women enrolled themselves in political clubs and worked for candidates, making speeches, hiring a wall to post up electioneering notices and generally acting as addresses and generally acting as addresses and generally acting as addresses.

ONE GAME TODAY AT NEW ORLEANS

Double-Header Will Be Played Sunday—Price to Pitch Today—Dent Reports to Local Club Here.

By Sam L. Gilbert.
New Orleans May 16—(Special.)—Well grounds prevented the scheduled opening of the series with Billy Smith's Atlanta Crackers Friday but the Phillies will entertain them in a matinee Saturday and on Sunday afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock a double header will be in order.

The Sunday battles will be regulation nine inning affairs. Chief Charley Frank not being a believer in pruning two periods of seven, though the Birds must play Sunday night on a road trip opening a series at Chattanooga on Monday.

Manager Smith of the Crackers, talked confidently Friday night of taking the series of three games from the tail end in order. He expects to fling his best bet, Price in the game Saturday with Furchner to fall back upon in case the unexpected happens.

The Crackers boss declared his boys were the best batting aggregation he'd ever seen. Since leaving home on the long road trip the pitchers haven't been going quite so well and the Crackers haven't gotten an even break in luck but there has been hardly a game in which Smith's team has failed to make four or five runs and often more.

Pitcher Dent will report at Atlanta, and be ready to aid in turning back the Memphis "Turtles" who open a series at Crackertown next Monday.

Georgia-Tech Baseball Game Almost Queered By Big Sign

Sending Georgia to Warm Spot

Who were the sub-freshmen at Tech, who, on the very eve of their clash with Georgia on the diamond, nearly queered everything by consigning their opponents to perdition in letters ten feet long and four feet across, on the roof of one of the Tech dormitories...

For, just because of that sign, the game yesterday was called off, and the two teams would not have been allowed to play if the Tech student body had not apologized to Georgia. When President Matheson arose Friday...

Now Colonel Harris was already "sore," according to the boys, because of the burning of a certain edifice Saturday night, and he immediately looked back that the game for that afternoon should be called off. When the students heard of the decision, their wrath was more terrible to see than had been Dr. Matheson's.

Finally, in desperation, the boys adopted resolutions apologizing to Georgia, at a mass meeting at the chapel. Alumni Coach Heisman, even the boys themselves, spoke, denouncing the act...
