

TARIFF REVISION IS SENT BY HOUSE ON FINAL JOURNEY

Report of Conferees Adopted by Vote of 254 to 103—Sent to Act on the Report Today.

COTTON FUTURES TAX AMENDED BY HOUSE

Underwood Puts Smith-Lever Plan Through by a Close Vote—Senate Will Probably Reject.

Washington, September 30.—The democratic tariff revision bill left the house tonight on what the party leaders hoped would be its last journey to the senate. After many hours of debate the house adopted the main non-referendum agreement on the bill, 254 to 103, almost a record party vote, and by this action gave its endorsement to everything in the measure except the cotton futures tax.

Cotton Futures Tax to Senate

The cotton futures tax question now rests entirely with the senate. The house concurred in the Clarke amendment put into the tariff bill by the senate, but added the Smith-Lever-Underwood plan as another amendment.

Underwood Puts Smith-Lever Plan Through by a Close Vote—Senate Will Probably Reject.

Unless the senate will accept this change, which has the endorsement of the president, the whole cotton futures plan again will have to be considered in the joint conference committee and again reported to both houses for action.

Underwood Puts Smith-Lever Plan Through by a Close Vote—Senate Will Probably Reject.

The avowed purpose of the Clarke amendment was to abolish the exchanges entirely.

Atlanta Singers

For entertainers of twenty years ago and more the coming of Robin Hood for a week-end engagement will hold much more than the usual interest attached to the appearance of a good company in a delightful comic opera.

For one thing "Robin Hood" was the first opera sung at the Grand theater in Atlanta, and "entrances" and "exits" are the main features of the production. It is the fact that Miss Helen Little John and the rest had to make their way to the dressing room of timor to go from dressing room to dressing room, that is the story of the production.

And a prettier reminiscence is that two of the leading roles were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearson, who have been over since prominent in Atlanta's musical life.

Mrs. Pearson was a beautiful "Annie" and Mr. Pearson, a brave "Original" in this first company sent out from New York by the original "Robin Hood" company.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, who were the two young singers, then presented the Koven story, which was a trial to the audience. The production of "Robin Hood" Miss Hallinger, then the leading singer in the production, and Miss Helen Little John, who were the two young singers, then presented the Koven story, which was a trial to the audience.

So favorably impressed with Atlanta's musical life, the company decided to remain in the city for a longer period. The production of "Robin Hood" Miss Hallinger, then the leading singer in the production, and Miss Helen Little John, who were the two young singers, then presented the Koven story, which was a trial to the audience.

And since that time they have staged and popular members of Atlanta's choral and local musical activities.

An interesting coincidence that Miss Hallinger and Miss Helen Little John, who were the two young singers, then presented the Koven story, which was a trial to the audience.

Buyers of antiques drove through the country and heard of the old homestead. They visited grandmother and asked to see the furniture stored in the garret. Grandmother said the pieces were of no value. But they looked over the lot and paid grandmother enough to lift the mortgage from the old home and give her and grandfather peace and quiet the remainder of their lives.

Have you ever read the story of Grandma's Attic Treasures?

The old furniture of grandmother's girlhood stood long years in disuse, covered with dust and cobwebs.

AMONG musicians of the highest artistic attainments the possession of a Chickering is considered a mark of distinction and an indication of refined taste.

For almost a century the Chickering has stood supreme—the Aristocrat of the Piano World—the standard for comparison—a challenge and an example to other piano makers.

For Atlanta and the State of Georgia the exclusive home of the Chickering is at Sixty-three Peachtree Street, in the House of Ludden & Bates, dealers in Pianos of Quality.

You are cordially invited to visit our display rooms and examine the beautiful new styles, including the Concert Grand, Semi-Grand, Small Grand, Quarter Grand and Uprights.

To parties residing out of the city we will gladly send descriptive catalogues and price lists upon request.

AMAZONS OF ALBANIA ARE FIGHTING SERBIANS

Armed With Hatchets, Women Battle Shoulder to Shoulder With Men.

Vienna, September 26.—Women are taking an active part in the fighting in Albania, according to dispatches received here from Avtona, the Albanian capital.

Many Albanian Amazons, armed with hatchets, women heroically fighting to shoulder with their husbands and brothers during the street shooting at Dibrane, September 23, when 1,200 Serbians, were killed and 500 taken prisoner. The women fell into the hands of the Albanians and the prisoners were sent under escort to Tirana.

The women of the Greek race in southern Albania are also displaying a very warlike spirit. At Koritza, which is held by the Greeks, several girls have organized a company which is drilled by Greek army regulars. The women declare they would rather die than be incorporated in the state of Albania.

Outbreak is Ferocious. London, September 26.—The London correspondent of The Times writes that the fighting in Albania is becoming more and more ferocious. The Greek army is making a desperate effort to overcome it. The Albanians are reported to have won several victories from Dibra to Gostivar.

Watching the Swallow's First Flight. John Burroughs, in the October 1. I think the great event, the first flight of a swallow, is the most beautiful thing that I know of in the world.

There Are Lies and Lies. (Katherine F. Alford, in The October. Very few people I fancy would say that lying is a bad habit. I have seen a very young child, I suppose, once or twice, who was lying, and I have seen a very old man, I suppose, once or twice, who was lying.

Fresh Air in Schools. (From the Boston Post.) A medical inspector of the Philadelphia public schools with the co-operation of teachers and parents recently made an experiment to determine the value of fresh air in the schools.

Children of course, were extra wrapped and had frequent rest periods. Weak by weak during the fall and winter months, the children were watched and examined, the pupils were weighed and their height, weight and scholarship with that of pupils in the same school were compared.

As far, accurate and searching as possible. At the end of the open-window room had gained in weight on an average more than twice as much as those in the closed room kept wholly from the open air.

They were also kept alert from day-dreaming, quicker to learn, needed less review work and were better behaved. In health, in happiness, in the children of the room with open windows had a clear advantage of the closed room.

Railroad Loses Its One Engine. (From The Des Moines Capital.) The Des Moines and Northern railroad has been out of commission since Saturday. This Philadelphia experiment lay not in giving the open-air treatment to the children, but in giving it to the engine.
