

Now Accuse Fisher of Old Murder.

DALTON, Ga., Oct. 23.—Ira W. Fisher, who recently accused an Atlanta merchant of Mary Phagan's murder, to-day was indicted by a Whitfield County Grand Jury for the murder five years ago of Dug Steele, his brother-in-law. Fisher now is in jail at Atlanta, charged with criminal libel. Steele's body was found on a railroad track, and Fisher, arrested, was released when a Grand Jury decided Steele was killed by a train. New evidence, it is said, has come to light.

---

The New York Times

Published: October 24, 1913

Copyright © The New York Times